The Leftovers

A film about five people who attempt to travel 2000km in a vegetable oil powered van... Living on nothing but waste.

The Leftovers is a road trip adventure about people who eat trash. Meet Mykel and Paul, two experienced Dumpster Divers as they embark on a journey down the east coast of Australia. Wanting to make a statement about our over consuming society, they challenge themselves to live on nothing but waste and so leaving their money behind, they power their van with waste vegetable oil and eat out of bins along the way.

Also along for the ride they bring three brave new apprentices to the world of Dumpster Diving. Nick from Scotland who's in for the thrill, Sofia an international student from Sweden who wants to see the real Australia and Krystal who just wants to get out of Brisbane!

Will their first adrenalin-pumping dive into dumpster living be remembered as the dawn of a new age or the holiday from hell?!
