

a 1 x 107' Documentary from Corey Ogilvie

If Inside Job made 2008's economic meltdown comprehensible, Occupy: The Movie provides a sensational sequel by focusing on the social movement that set up shop at Wall Street's front door.

Occupy succeeded in captivating our collective consciousness and providing hope for positive change, but its visibility vanished as quickly as it appeared, leaving questions of its effectiveness in its wake. Tackling the complexity of how the movement manifested and providing cogent context to what caused its genesis, Corey Ogilvie presents a clear and compelling account of the Zuccotti Park settlement without getting lost in empty slogans, violent conflicts or proselytizing activists.

Featuring key interviews with Kalle Lasn (Adbusters), philosopher Cornel West, journalist Chris Hedges and leading organizers from the Occupy Wall Street movement, Occupy: The Movie isn't propaganda for the cause, but an expert analysis of one of the biggest American social movements since the civil rights era.

OCCUPY THE MOVIE

a film by COREY OGILVIE

SIDEWAYS FILM

For further information or screeners contact:
Kazz@sidewaysfilm.com
+44 (0) 788 147 3603
www.sidewaysfilm.com